PRIME MINISTER · PREMIER MINISTRE

June 2018

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to everyone taking part in this year's celebration of Eid al-Fitr, hosted by the Muslim Association of Canada.

Eid Al-Fitr, one of the most important religious holidays for the Muslim community, marks the end of the holy month of Ramadan. On this day, Muslims in Canada and around the world attend morning prayers, share a celebratory meal and give generously to others.

Eid Al-Fitr is also an opportunity to celebrate our country's Muslim communities, and the important contributions that Muslim Canadians make to the strong and vibrant multicultural fabric of our nation.

Please accept my best wishes for a memorable celebration. Eid Mubarak!

Sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Justin P.J. Trudeau, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada

Welcome Note:

The Muslim Association of Canada (MAC) envisions Muslims as a community in Canada that is an essential, integral and vibrant part of this society yet maintaining its religious attributes and values. In aiming to integrate the Muslim identity into the Canadian social fabric, MAC has dedicated itself to events such as Eid Festivals. Eid is a very important celebration for Muslims, establishing a united gathering to represent such a multicultural community that directly strengthens the Canadian heritage. An essential component to Canada's heritage is its diversity and multiculturalism. MAC is contributing to enrich this heritage by preserving, promoting and integrating a positive Canadian Muslim identity and presence through the Eid Festival.

The Eid Festival is one of the most important engagement programs delivered by MAC. The program is designed to be a reflection of MAC's vision, deliver on MAC's mission and achieve the engagement objectives of the organization. The Eid Festivals provide MAC a direct medium to interact with the general public and Muslim community to educate them on our vision.

On behalf of MAC, we would like to wish you and your loved ones a blessed Eid. Montreal's MAC Eid Festival is truly a remarkable event for the whole family with entertainment and activities for all ages. So, don't leave anyone behind: all are welcome to partake in the various activities for all age groups, bazaar, food – and so much more!
